

Curriculum Vitae

JEANETTE BUSHNELL, PHD

OFFICE

Gender, Women and Sexuality Studies
Comparative History of Ideas
Box 354345 | University of Washington | Seattle, WA 98195
Phone: 206-543-6900 | Fax: 206-685-9555 | email: pembina@u.washington.edu

PERSONAL INFORMATION

Citizenship: Turtle Mountain Chippewa of North Dakota, #304-12497 and United States
Family: Born in Tacoma, raised in Olympia. Married to Richard Albright with three daughters.

EDUCATION

Ph.D. Women Studies, University of Washington, Seattle 2009
Dissertation Title: "I can think of a lot of stories.": Shared Knowledges, Indigenous Methodology and Purposeful Conversations with Sixteen Native Women in Seattle"
Dissertation Chair: David G. Allen, Ph.D.

Writing Certificate, Edmonds Community College 1995

M.N. Cross Cultural Nursing, University of Washington, Seattle 1979
Thesis Title: Beliefs about Pregnancy and Childbirth of Quinault Indian Women

B.S. Nursing, University of Washington, Seattle 1975

PROFESSIONAL AND COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES – ACADEMIA

University of Washington, Lecturer (2005-present) TA (1999-2005) 1999-present

Courses Developed:

- A Close Reading in Theory: Vine Deloria, Jr.: CHID 495
- Comparative Knowledges, Indigenous Systems: CHID 480 and CHID 250
- Rethinking Diversity (formerly CHID 270): CHID 260
- A Comparative Exploration of Diversity: Interdisciplinary Knowledges and Personal Engagements: CHID 270
- Comparative Pedagogies: Tools for Facilitating Conversations About Difference: CHID 498
- Hip Hop in the 206 / It's Bigger Than Hip Hop: CHID 250
- Reading Native American Women's Lives: WOMEN 440 / AIS 440
- Lushootseed (coordinated with Tulalip Tribes Instructor): AIS 313-314-315
- Black & Native Women: Locating Ourselves: WOMEN 490 / AIS 475
- Critical Pedagogies of Social Change (not offered yet) AES / WOMEN 4xx
- New Zealand Study Abroad, Faculty and Program Director
  - Junior Colloquium – Comparative Understandings of Ideas and Peoples: CHID 390
  - South Pacific Community Engagement – Maori & Colonial Histories: CHID 472
  - Pre-Departure Seminar: CHID 298

Courses also Taught:

- Introduction to Women Studies: WOMEN 200
- Race, Class, Gender in Social Stratification: WOMEN 300 / AES 322
- Indigenous Feminisms: WOMEN 244 / AIS 475
- Diversity Discourses, A Special Colloquium (facilitator): CHID 498

Courses - TA and/or Service Learning Coordinator:

- Introduction to Women Studies: WOMEN 200
- Ethnohistory of American Indians: AIS 201
- Pueblo Indian Women of the American Southwest: WOMEN / AIS 342
- Women in Law & Literature: WOMEN / CHID 350

Committees:

- Women's Studies Executive Committee
- Women Studies Curriculum Committee
- CHID Principles Committee
- CHID Governance Committee

Community Building and Community Service:

- Native American Students in Advanced Academia
- Indigenous Women's Network
- Center for Studies with Indigenous Women – a one-year pilot program
- Native People's Alliance – a Seattle Indian activist group
- Alaska Native Sisterhood
- Organizer and Speaker at Annual Indigenous People's Day Rallies
- Organizer for the Northwest Healing Gathering sponsored by local Indigene
- Organizer for Anti-Racist and Transnational Feminisms Conference at UW
- Senior TA Workshop Leader for UW new TA orientation
- Invited Speaker at UW Center for Instructional Development and Research
- Presentation at UW Equity Pay Day Rally
- Presentation at Mothers and More Conference, Seattle
- Lecturer for Seattle Area Hospital Teaching Consortium
- Evaluator for Edmonds-Woodway High School Senior Projects

Grant Activities and Awards:

- |   |      |
|---|------|
| UW Diversity Fellow   | 2011 |
| UW Distinguished Teaching Award Nominee   | 2010 |
| UW Diversity Initiative Grant, Principle Investigator   | 2005 |
| Developed three new courses with goal of engaging very large groups of students with diversity. |      |
| UW Graduate Medalist Award for Public Scholarship   | 2003 |
| Ford Foundation, Evans School of Public Administration Diversity Grant                          | 2002 |
| Developed teaching Case Study with diversity content.   |      |
| Doman Award for Excellence in Teaching  | 2001 |
| Huckabay Fellowship, University of Washington Graduate School                                   | 2001 |
| Developed diversity course for Edmonds Community College  |      |
| Honorable Mention, Ford Foundation Pre-dissertation Fellowship                                  | 2000 |
| American Indian Graduate Center Fellowship  | 1999 |

University of Washington, CHID Academic Advisor 2004-2005

Edmonds Community College, Lecturer 2003-2004
 Course Taught:
 Introduction to Women Studies, WOMEN 200
 Grant Activities and Awards:
 Huckabay Fellowship to develop new introductory course on diversity

University of Alaska Anchorage, Instructor 1997-1999
 Courses Taught:
 Nursing the Childbearing Family
 Current Issues and Trends in Maternal-Child Nursing
 Professional Perspectives in Nursing
 Grant Activities:
 Native American Student Recruitment Grant – Faculty, Project Coordinator 1998-1999
 A multi-year program that coordinated with existing on-campus activities doing outreach, recruitment, retention and mentoring of Alaska Native students within health professions degree programs.
 Committees:
 Nursing Baccalaureate Curriculum Program
 Women Studies Curriculum Committee – developed the new minor
 Community Building and Community Service:
 African American, Hispanic, Asian, International, Native American (AHAINA) Mentor
 Alaska Native Sisterhood
 Organizer for University of Washington Annual Women’s Health Conference
 Classroom Reading Program, 6th grade

University of Washington, School of Nursing, Lecturer 1987-1990
 Courses:
 Nursing the Childbearing Family
 Committees:
 Parent Child Health Curriculum

PROFESSIONAL AND COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES – NURSING

Stevens Memorial Hospital, Edmonds. 1990-1997
 RN and Assistant Director (oversaw annual budget of over $1 million and 102 employees)
 University of Washington Medical Center, Women's Clinic, Seattle.
 Nurse Manager/Clinical Specialist - Developed the High Risk OB Clinic 1984-1988
 Conducted Research in the Fetal Physiology Unit 1996-1997
 International Biomedics, Inc., Consultant, Bothell. 1985-1986
 The Birthplace, Seattle. 1978-1982
 Started Seattle’s first free-standing birthing center with a midwife and an educator. We offered prenatal care, clinic births and postpartum home visits.
 Group Health Cooperative, Seattle. Charge Nurse, L&D 1977-1981
 University of Washington, Graduate Research Assistant 1979
 Hood River Community Hospital, Hood River, OR. Staff RN-OB & ER 1976
 Grays Harbor Health Department, Aberdeen, WA. Public Health Nurse 1975

FAMILY LIFE AND ACTIVISM

Community Building and Activism:

NW Indian Women's Circle, Women of All Red Nations, American Indian Movement, Leonard Peltier Defense Committee and various task groups. 1982-present
I have worked on local, national and international issues relating to women and indigenous peoples. I have written press releases and public service announcements, organized local, national and international gatherings, spoke at public forums, developed community gardens, visited prisons among other activities.

Family and Home Life:

After our marriage in 1976, I moved with my husband to various communities in Washington and Alaska as he pursued his career, ending in Seattle.
We have three daughters born in 1977, 1982 and 1985.

PUBLICATIONS

- Bushnell, Jeanette M. 2009. "I can think of a lot of stories.": shared knowledges, indigenous methodology and purposeful conversations with sixteen native women in Seattle. Thesis (PhD) Seattle: University of Washington.
- Bushnell, J.M. 2005. Book Review: Alaska's Daughter: An Eskimo Memoir of the Early Twentieth Century, by Elizabeth Bernhardt Pinson. Logan: Utah State University, 2004. American Indian Culture and Research Journal, 29(1)100-2.
- Bushnell, J. M. 2004. The Responsibilities and Powers of Reproduction. Indigenous Woman, 5(1)23-4.
- Bushnell, J. M. 1999. Tribal Mothering as Portrayed in Paula Gunn Allen's Spider Woman's Granddaughter. Journal of the Association for Research on Mothering, 1(1).
- Hendricks, S. K, Bushnell, J., et al. 1989. Doppler Umbilical Artery Waveform Indices – Normal Values from Fourteen to Forty-Two Weeks. American Journal of Obstetrics and Gynecology. 161(3)761-5.
- Bushnell, J. M. 1982. Beliefs about Pregnancy and Childbirth of Quinault Indian Women. Proceedings of the Seventh Annual Transcultural Nursing Conference.
- McKenna, M., Bushnell, J., et al. 1982. Cultural Encounters: Implementing Transcultural Nursing Theory in Practice. Proceedings of the Seventh Annual Transcultural Nursing Conference.
- Bushnell, J. M. 1981. Northwest Coast American Indian's Beliefs about Childbirth. Issues in Health Care of Women. 3(4)249-261.
- Bushnell, J. M. 1980. Book Review: The Cesarean (R)Evolution, by Linda Meyers. Birth and Family Journal. 30(1)152.

PRESENTATIONS AND GUEST LECTURES

- Histories of Local Activism of American Indian Women, Guest Lecture.
University of Washington. Spring 2012
- Hip Hop in the Academic Context. Women Who Rock Unconference.
Washington Hall, Seattle. March 3, 2012
- Indigenous Masculinities, Guest Lectures. University of Washington. Winter 2011 and 2012
- Performed "thoughts tonight". Hip Hop in the 206 Community Event.
University of Washington. June 7, 2011
- Indigenous Methodologies, Guest Lecture. University of Washington. Spring 2011
- Performing Words in the Academy: Indigenous Feminist Methodology.
Dialoguing Difference: First I Dream: Women of Color Collective Conference. University of Washington. May 27, 2011

“I can think of a lot of stories”: Purposeful Conversations as Research Methods. Native American Students in Advanced Academia. University of Washington. April 23, 2010

American Indian Women’s Local Activisms, Bi-Annual Guest Lectures. University of Washington. 2001-2009

Difficult Dialogues Conference Presenter. University of Washington. December 1, 2007

Why Diversity?: Integrating Multiple Aspects of Diversity into Public Administration Education and Research. National Association of Schools of Public Affairs and Administration Annual Conference. Seattle. October 11, 2007

Thinking in Subversion: Knowledges and Teaching. Native American Students in Advanced Academia, University of Washington. April 7, 2006

Footprints and Images: Indigenous People of Turtle Island. Presentation to Port of Seattle employees. Seattle. December 2005

American Indian Women’s Knowledges. Indigenous Women and Feminism: Culture, Activism, Politics. University of Alberta, Edmonton. August 26, 2005

Changing the Classroom Panel. Teaching With Diversity. The Evan’s School of Public Affairs, University of Washington. June 17, 2005

Creating a Center for Studies With Indigenous Women. Aboriginal Education Research Forum. University of Manitoba, Winnipeg. June 2, 2005

Conversations Across Anti-Racist and Transnational Feminisms. Workshop Facilitator. University of Washington. May 11, 2005

American Indian Women’s Knowledges. 3rd Annual Showcase of American Indian and Alaska Native Scholarship at UW: Role of Communities in Native Education. University of Washington. April 30, 2004

Women in Higher Education, Guest Lecture. University of Washington. April 21, 2004

Black and Native Women: Locating Ourselves. Curriculum Development: Shifting Borders of Race and Identity. University of Kansas, Lawrence. February 23, 2004

Race, Gender and Sexual Orientation Panelist. Edmonds Community College. Edmonds. October 23, 2003

Classroom Diversity, Workshop Facilitator. Campus-Wide TA Conference on Teaching and Learning. University of Washington. September 2003

Readings for Memoirs, Music and Movement, GEAR UP Workshop for Teachers. University of Washington. July 10, 2003

Native American Rights and Issues. Guest Lecture. Edmonds Community College, Edmonds. April 22, 2003

Forum Theater in the Classroom. One Step at a Time: Small Doable Acts, Worthwhile Results. The Washington Center. North Seattle Community College. Seattle. February 22, 2003

American Indian Studies at the University of Washington Panel. American Indian and Alaska Native Professor’s Annual Conference. Arizona State University, Tempe. February 14, 2003

Critical Paths/Care Maps® and Case Management Systems: Integrating Documentation Forms with Clinical Pathways. University of Washington

Medical Center. Seattle.	June 1996
Ethnic Diversity. Clinical Experiences with Native Americans. University of Washington Medical Center. Seattle.	March 1993
Ethnic Diversity: Empowering Yourself and Your Patient. Clinical Experiences with Native Americans. UW Medical Center. Seattle.	March 1992
Beliefs about Pregnancy and Childbirth of Northwest Coast Indian Women. Seventh Annual Transcultural Nursing Conference, Seattle.	Spring 1981
Cultural Encounters: Implementing Transcultural Nursing Theory in Practice. Seventh Annual Transcultural Nursing Conference. Seattle.	Spring 1981