

Comparative Colonialism

Summer A-Term 2015 | CHID 480 B | HSTCMP 485A | I&S | Instructor: Vicente Rafael

This course explores the historic roots and practices of colonialism throughout the world, focusing on the roles of nationalism, cosmopolitanism, and imperial domination. Treats colonialism as a world event whose effects continue to be felt and whose power needs to be addressed.